County Commission

Commission honors Jack Huddleston

Former Commissioner Jack Huddleston was honored last week by the Dade County Commission for his public service and serving Kathryn's small medical bright light in the Office Commission's Huddleston and his wife Joyce were joined during the presentation by Commissioner Dorrin Rolle right.

Closing of Lovelace Road Denied

School system approves proposed rezoning plan

By Steve Lovelady