

Children and adults gathered for the annual "Gratitude" event at the Hartford Public Library. The event was held on Friday, May 14, 2010, and featured a variety of activities, including a book reading, a craft activity, and a performance by the Hartford Public Library's "Gratitude" troupe. The event was held in the courtyard of the Hartford Public Library, which is located at 1000 Main St., Hartford, CT 06103. The event was sponsored by the Hartford Public Library and the Hartford Public Library's "Gratitude" troupe. The event was held in the courtyard of the Hartford Public Library, which is located at 1000 Main St., Hartford, CT 06103. The event was sponsored by the Hartford Public Library and the Hartford Public Library's "Gratitude" troupe.

"Gratitude" the theme of Imagination Library Week

Imagination Library Week is a national event that celebrates the power of books and the joy of reading. The event is held every year in May and is a great opportunity for children and adults to learn more about the importance of reading and the benefits of books. The event is held in many communities across the country and is a great way to get involved in your community and to learn more about the importance of reading.

The event is held in many communities across the country and is a great way to get involved in your community and to learn more about the importance of reading. The event is held in many communities across the country and is a great way to get involved in your community and to learn more about the importance of reading.

The event is held in many communities across the country and is a great way to get involved in your community and to learn more about the importance of reading. The event is held in many communities across the country and is a great way to get involved in your community and to learn more about the importance of reading. The event is held in many communities across the country and is a great way to get involved in your community and to learn more about the importance of reading.

The event is held in many communities across the country and is a great way to get involved in your community and to learn more about the importance of reading. The event is held in many communities across the country and is a great way to get involved in your community and to learn more about the importance of reading.

Special from Imagination Library
 (Call for details)
 (Call for details)
 (Call for details)
 (Call for details)
 (Call for details)
 (Call for details)
 (Call for details)
 (Call for details)
 (Call for details)
 (Call for details)

Mayor Regan to lead parade celebrating Imagination Library Week

Mayor Regan will lead a parade celebrating Imagination Library Week on Friday, May 14, 2010. The parade will start at 10:00 a.m. and will end at 1:00 p.m. The parade will be held on Main St. in Hartford, CT. The parade will be a great opportunity for children and adults to learn more about the importance of reading and the benefits of books. The parade is held in many communities across the country and is a great way to get involved in your community and to learn more about the importance of reading.

The parade is held in many communities across the country and is a great way to get involved in your community and to learn more about the importance of reading. The parade is held in many communities across the country and is a great way to get involved in your community and to learn more about the importance of reading. The parade is held in many communities across the country and is a great way to get involved in your community and to learn more about the importance of reading.