
CAK athletes, performing arts students receive tribute

[illegible] Academy of Knoxville had a socially distant parade featuring its senior athletes and performing arts students recently. On the [illegible] from her the majority of the spring semester and spring gave to season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Photo submitted.

By Nora Gay

The COVID-19 pandemic may [illegible] and brought an end to high [illegible] Academy of Knoxville wanted to give its students an opportunity [illegible]

[illegible] and students at Fort Sanders Regional Center and Fort Sanders Alzheimer's Unit.

On a day said a [illegible] the school's athletic teams, [illegible] the school's athletic teams [illegible] Knoxville, May 12 and was conducted by CAK athletic director Paul Cotton and Fort Sanders Alzheimer's Unit.

[illegible] the school's athletic teams [illegible] CAK athletic director Paul Cotton [illegible] students at CAK School.

[illegible] the school's [illegible] CAK athletic director [illegible] Knoxville [illegible] Knoxville [illegible] Knoxville