

By JEFFREY L. COOPER / Staff Writer

Local election

With the results of the Nov. 6 election still being counted, the race for mayor of the city of Delta has been decided.

Incumbent Mayor Dennis Valpe

defeated challenger Mike Gandy by a margin of 51 percent to 49 percent.

Gandy, who was running his first campaign for mayor, had previously served as a member of the city council for two terms.

The election was held on Nov. 6, with the results being certified on Nov. 13. The winning candidate, Dennis Valpe, will begin his second term as mayor on Jan. 1, 2013.

The losing candidate, Mike Gandy, will remain on the city council until his term ends in December 2012.

The election was held on Nov. 6, with the results being certified on Nov. 13. The winning candidate, Dennis Valpe, will begin his second term as mayor on Jan. 1, 2013.

The losing candidate, Mike Gandy, will remain on the city council until his term ends in December 2012.

Photo by Jeffrey L. Cooper

Election results are in Dennis Valpe to serve second term

Local election

With the results of the Nov. 6 election still being counted, the race for mayor of the city of Delta has been decided.

From left, Dennis Valpe, Mike Gandy and reporter Jeffrey L. Cooper.

INSIDE:

• City Council
• School Board
• Auditor's Office

Our Morning Edition reader surveys...

The survey asked readers what they think about the new mayor. Dennis Valpe received 51% of the vote, while Mike Gandy received 49%.

With the results of the Nov. 6 election still being counted, the race for mayor of the city of Delta has been decided.

The election was held on Nov. 6, with the results being certified on Nov. 13. The winning candidate, Dennis Valpe, will begin his second term as mayor on Jan. 1, 2013.

The losing candidate, Mike Gandy, will remain on the city council until his term ends in December 2012.

The election was held on Nov. 6, with the results being certified on Nov. 13. The winning candidate, Dennis Valpe, will begin his second term as mayor on Jan. 1, 2013.

The losing candidate, Mike Gandy, will remain on the city council until his term ends in December 2012.

Photo by Jeffrey L. Cooper