

game winning shot to Cathala's 58-52 over final win over Nashville Whites Creek in the TSSAA Class AA state tournament Friday.

Knoxville Cathala's historic season came to an end Saturday in the Class AA state championship game when the top ranked Indians fell to Nashville Maplewood 60-57. The Panthers got off to an early lead and led most of the game as Cathala was hampered by foul trouble. Cathala's standout senior point guard Luke Smith missed most of the third quarter as he was sidelined with three fouls. Cathala was led by Brock Jones (18 points), Dylan Reader (11 points) and Smith (13 points). The game came down to the last play when Smith's desperation 17-foot shot failed to go in.

The annual Knoxville Neighborhood Conference brought many community leaders together earlier this month and one of the most interesting ideas was hatched at the "Tennessee Group" workshop. The discussion and presentation, one of more than 22 workshops offered, was moderated by Ronnie Collins, president of the Alice (Bob) Spring Hill Neighborhood Association. The panelists were Jerry Lee Wright of the Fourth and Gil
