

Two Thumbs Way Up!
 The Knox County Board of Education has approved a new curriculum for the county's schools. The board voted 10-0 to approve the new curriculum, which will be implemented in the fall of 2011. The new curriculum is designed to provide students with a more rigorous and challenging education, and to prepare them for the workforce.

Board Approves New Curriculum
 The Knox County Board of Education has approved a new curriculum for the county's schools. The board voted 10-0 to approve the new curriculum, which will be implemented in the fall of 2011. The new curriculum is designed to provide students with a more rigorous and challenging education, and to prepare them for the workforce.

Two Thumbs Way Up!
 The Knox County Board of Education has approved a new curriculum for the county's schools. The board voted 10-0 to approve the new curriculum, which will be implemented in the fall of 2011. The new curriculum is designed to provide students with a more rigorous and challenging education, and to prepare them for the workforce.

Regal Scholars for 2006 honored
 The Knox County Board of Education has honored the Regal Scholars for 2006. The scholars are students who have achieved academic excellence and who have been recognized for their achievements.

Inside
 The Knox County Board of Education has approved a new curriculum for the county's schools. The board voted 10-0 to approve the new curriculum, which will be implemented in the fall of 2011. The new curriculum is designed to provide students with a more rigorous and challenging education, and to prepare them for the workforce.

The Knoxville Focus
 www.knoxfocus.com
 August 11, 2011
 $10 - Value Deal

Board Approves New Carter Elementary School
 The Knox County Board of Education has approved a new elementary school. The school will be named Carter Elementary School and will be located in the Carter area. The school is expected to open in the fall of 2012.

