

Knockout Thea Young
wears a colorful
mask at the festival.

Festival offers family fun

By Mike Smith

The Knoxville Festival of the Arts and Music is a family-friendly event that offers a variety of activities for all ages. The festival is held at the historic Knoxville Convention Center and features a wide range of performances, including live music, dance, and theater. The festival is a great opportunity for families to enjoy the arts and music together.

The festival is a family-friendly event that offers a variety of activities for all ages. The festival is held at the historic Knoxville Convention Center and features a wide range of performances, including live music, dance, and theater. The festival is a great opportunity for families to enjoy the arts and music together.

Knockout Thea Young
wears a colorful
mask at the festival.

Lonsdale Sports Complex questioned at City Council

By Mike Smith

knxnews.com

knxnews.com

knxnews.com

knxnews.com

'Give A Day Knoxville' event to celebrate volunteer spirit

The 'Give A Day Knoxville' event is a community-wide initiative to encourage volunteerism. The event is held on a single day each year and involves a wide range of activities, including cleaning up public spaces, planting trees, and helping at local charities. The event is a great opportunity for people to give back to their community and make a positive impact.

The 'Give A Day Knoxville' event is a community-wide initiative to encourage volunteerism. The event is held on a single day each year and involves a wide range of activities, including cleaning up public spaces, planting trees, and helping at local charities. The event is a great opportunity for people to give back to their community and make a positive impact.