

A Day at the Ballpark

Even if many students and teachers cheer the annual baseball game by the downtown location to cheer it is not over the Management House during July 1st (Wed.). Students may play in the baseball park, but they are the first of the game, not the 1st.

Policy Review Committee proposes changes by 2010

On Thursday afternoon, the House Policy Review Committee proposed changes to the current policy on the 2010 election.

Under the current policy, the committee has decided to change the way it will handle the 2010 election. The committee will now be responsible for the 2010 election, and the committee will now be responsible for the 2010 election.

The committee proposed these changes with the goal of making the 2010 election more efficient.

The committee made changes to the way it will handle the 2010 election. The committee will now be responsible for the 2010 election, and the committee will now be responsible for the 2010 election. The committee will now be responsible for the 2010 election, and the committee will now be responsible for the 2010 election.

The committee will now be responsible for the 2010 election, and the committee will now be responsible for the 2010 election. The committee will now be responsible for the 2010 election, and the committee will now be responsible for the 2010 election.

The committee will now be responsible for the 2010 election, and the committee will now be responsible for the 2010 election. The committee will now be responsible for the 2010 election, and the committee will now be responsible for the 2010 election.

13th Annual Wesley House Golf Tournament in June