

Knox County students and teachers cheer the second nome run of the game by the Tennessee Smoktes in their 7-1 win over the Montgom Biscuits during Safe Kids Health Awareness Day May 16 at Smokies Furk. See story in The Focus' Sports & Recreation, Section C.

By Pete Gawda

On Thursday afternoon the Knox County Schools Policy Review Committee met to consider changes in school system policies.

Upon the advice of their legal ocurred, the committee decided to change the wording on policy G-220 Harassment of Employeas. Among the reasons for harassment the policy lists "actual or perceived gender, sexual or instruct." The committee replaced those words with the one word 'sex."

changes in wording to policy G-370 Administrative Suspension. The title was changed to Administrative Leave or Suspension and the director of schools was given the option of either placing an employee on leave or suspension. The semisore, 'Under no.'

The sentence 'Under no circumstances shall the