

Lynn "Dewboy" Bates is the pitcher for the Knoxville Indians.

Vintage Knoxville teams

10,000-sq-ft regional multipurpose facility featuring a learning center, a gymnasium with four basketball courts, locker rooms, concessions and a kitchen, a fitness area with a weight room, dance/gymnasium and cardio/track area, an auditorium for public gatherings and a performing arts area with practice rooms.

The proposed complex would be constructed on vacant city-owned property, located at 4100 p.m. on Unadilla/Hempden School, USF under an interim.

The school will be open available for the June 1 public meeting, but anyone needing a special needs assessment should contact the city's Kim Friedman, at kim.friedman@cityofknox.org or 404.244.4100. For an English interpretation contact the City's Law Department at 404.223.2000.

Dollar General Store OK'd for Boyds Bridge Pike

By Mike Brady mikebrady@knoxnews.com

The neighborhood commercial zoning that has been proposed to permit the coming of the new store with Toys 'R Us and many of their neighbors, but Toys 'R Us will open in 2000.