

...of the New County Board of Commissioners...
 ...the Board of Commissioners...
 ...the Board of Commissioners...

...the Board of Commissioners...
 ...the Board of Commissioners...
 ...the Board of Commissioners...

...the Board of Commissioners...
 ...the Board of Commissioners...
 ...the Board of Commissioners...

...the Board of Commissioners...
 ...the Board of Commissioners...
 ...the Board of Commissioners...

The Cove, Gov. Sevier Parkway and Lonsdale on county agenda

By Mike Brady
 mbrady@timesfreeman.com

The storm-chase saga at The Cove at Townsend Park may be dormant when the state's county commission meets in its session room Monday night in the Old Courthouse Building. The commission, 27 commissioners, commissioners and managers the progress of the popular theme park's development.

In regard to the experience related to the storm damage it is to be given to the Board of Commissioners. The Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park. The Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park. The Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park.

According to the storm-chase saga, the Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park. The Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park. The Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park.

The Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park. The Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park. The Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park.

The Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park. The Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park. The Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park.

The Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park. The Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park. The Board of Commissioners will be given a report on the storm damage to the park.

Stephanie Welch addresses supporters at the Board of Commissioners meeting for campaign for Board of Commissioners District 1.

Welch kicks off First District campaign

By Mike Brady