

Mike Cove, Don Sevin Parkway and Lonsdale on county agenda

By Mike Covey
mikecovey@newspress.com

The storm damage at The Cove at Concord Park may be discussed when the Knox County Commission meets in early session next Monday at 8 p.m. in the City-County Building. The storm on May 19 downed trees, power lines and damaged the playground at the popular West Knox County park.

A report on the expenses related to the storm damage may be given by the Finance Department. Early estimates put the damage seen for around $100,000 or possibly higher. Knox County Parks and Recreation were hoping to secure the contract for landscaping for additional funds. Legacy Parks Foundation has established a fund for repairs there.

According to the storm power lines there, still maintaining underground power lines to the park. The Cove was closed following the storm and during repairs there and a concert by a local band was canceled.

The Knox County Parks and Recreation Department repaired The Cove Friday afternoon. The department is busy replacing benches, reinforcing the parking lot, landscaping, etc.

Commissioner John Schaefer is asking for Stephanie Welch addresses supporters at the Island Home resident table off her campaign for Knoxville's First District City Council seat.

Welch kicks off First