

...for $27,500.
The council has also agreed to appropriate
$200,000 for the new
...for the new

...for the new
...for the new
...for the new
...for the new

...for the new
...for the new
...for the new
...for the new

...for the new
...for the new
...for the new
...for the new

...for the new
...for the new
...for the new
...for the new

...for the new
...for the new
...for the new
...for the new

New Harvest Park to host 7th annual Blueberry Festival

The New Harvest Park Farmers Market will host the seventh annual Blueberry Festival on Thursday, June 26, with more than 100 vendors showcasing their wares from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. in front of the park's main entrance.

The market, which runs from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Wednesdays and Saturdays, will be held on the east lawn of the park, located at 4775 New Harvest Road.

In addition to food vendors, there will be a variety of other activities and exhibits, including a children's area.

A 4th-grade student contest will be held on the day of the festival, with the winner receiving a prize. The contest will be held on the day of the festival, with the winner receiving a prize.

The festival is a free event for the community and is open to all ages.

Continued on page 2

ETBA GIFTS HOLSTON MIDDLE

ETBA President of the East Tennessee Association presented a check to the Holston Middle School. The check is for $10,000 and is being presented to the school as a gift. The group is standing in front of the school building.

'Bats and Bones' draws huge crowd

By Mike Stucky
...for the new

...for the new
...for the new
...for the new

...for the new
...for the new
...for the new

...for the new
...for the new
...for the new

...for the new
...for the new
...for the new