

The Knoxville Focus

www.knoxfocus.com

Now offering online edition updates
 Receive the Focus in print or online
 Choose your subscription rate
FREE
 1st Issue!

'Joint Operation' veterans event to be held in Knox County

A "Joint Operation" veterans event is set for Saturday, Oct. 10, at the Knoxville Convention Center. The event is a joint effort between the American Legion Post 1212 and the American Legion Post 1213. The event will feature a variety of activities, including a parade, a concert, and a luncheon. The parade will start at 10 a.m. and will travel down Broadway Street to the Convention Center. The concert will be held at 11 a.m. and will feature a variety of musical acts. The luncheon will be held at 12 p.m. and will be a free meal for all veterans and their families. The event is open to all veterans and their families, regardless of their military service. For more information, contact the American Legion Post 1212 at (615) 522-1212.

McWhorter Park may get a 20-year lease

McWhorter Park, a popular destination for outdoor recreation in Knoxville, may be secured for the next 20 years. The city of Knoxville is in the process of negotiating a lease with the state of Tennessee for the park. The lease would give the city the right to use the park for recreational purposes, including hiking, fishing, and boating. The lease would also allow the city to develop the park further, including the construction of new trails and facilities. The lease is expected to be finalized in the next few months. The city of Knoxville is excited about the prospect of securing the park for the long term. The park is a valuable asset to the city and its residents, and the city wants to ensure that it remains available for future generations. The lease would also provide the city with a steady stream of revenue, which can be used to maintain and improve the park. The city is looking forward to a long and productive relationship with the state of Tennessee. The lease is a significant step towards ensuring the future of McWhorter Park. The city is committed to providing a high-quality recreational experience for its residents and visitors. The lease will allow the city to continue to improve the park and to provide a safe and enjoyable environment for all. The city is proud to be a part of the state of Tennessee and to be able to share the beauty of McWhorter Park with everyone. The lease is a testament to the city's commitment to its residents and to the state of Tennessee. The city is looking forward to a bright future for McWhorter Park and for the city of Knoxville.

Photo: Mike Miller for the Focus. The person is sitting on a green chair on a wooden dock by a lake, fishing. The person is wearing a red and black plaid shirt and blue pants. The lake is calm and the sky is clear. There are trees in the background.

Low rates granted for special events at Indian Landing, Baker Creek Preserve

The city of Knoxville has granted low rates for special events at Indian Landing and Baker Creek Preserve. The city is offering a 50% discount on the rental fee for these facilities. The discount is available for events that are held on weekends and holidays. The city is also offering a 25% discount on the rental fee for events that are held during the week. The city is looking for events that will bring in a large number of people and that will be a benefit to the community. The city is also looking for events that will be a good use of the facilities. The city is happy to provide a low rate for these events. The city is committed to providing a high-quality recreational experience for its residents and visitors. The city is looking forward to a bright future for Indian Landing and Baker Creek Preserve. The city is proud to be a part of the state of Tennessee and to be able to share the beauty of these facilities with everyone. The city is looking forward to a long and productive relationship with the state of Tennessee. The city is committed to providing a high-quality recreational experience for its residents and visitors. The city is looking forward to a bright future for Indian Landing and Baker Creek Preserve. The city is proud to be a part of the state of Tennessee and to be able to share the beauty of these facilities with everyone. The city is looking forward to a long and productive relationship with the state of Tennessee. The city is committed to providing a high-quality recreational experience for its residents and visitors. The city is looking forward to a bright future for Indian Landing and Baker Creek Preserve. The city is proud to be a part of the state of Tennessee and to be able to share the beauty of these facilities with everyone.

6th District Candidate Forum tonight

A candidate forum for the 6th District is being held tonight at the Knoxville Convention Center. The forum will feature a variety of candidates for the U.S. House of Representatives. The candidates will be asked to answer questions about their qualifications, their views on key issues, and their plans if elected. The forum is a great opportunity for voters to learn more about the candidates and to hear their views on the issues that matter most to them. The forum will be held from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. and will be free and open to the public. The forum is a great way to get involved in the political process and to help elect the best candidate for the 6th District. The forum is a great opportunity for voters to learn more about the candidates and to hear their views on the issues that matter most to them. The forum will be held from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. and will be free and open to the public. The forum is a great way to get involved in the political process and to help elect the best candidate for the 6th District. The forum is a great opportunity for voters to learn more about the candidates and to hear their views on the issues that matter most to them. The forum will be held from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. and will be free and open to the public. The forum is a great way to get involved in the political process and to help elect the best candidate for the 6th District.

Real Estate
 Call for more info
 615-522-1212

St. Vincent's
 Health Services
 Call for more info
 615-522-1212

Car Rental
 Call for more info
 615-522-1212