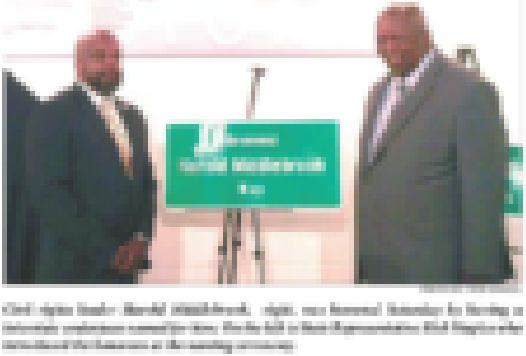
Civil rights leaders honored by overpass signs



Civil rights leader Harold Middlebrook, right, was honored Saturday by having a interstate overpass named for him. On the left is State Representative Rick Staples who introduced the measure at the naming ceremony.

Lansdale youth center, paintball, and sports tourism