

Panel disagrees with Police
Internal Review

Alvin Frye gave 93 years to family, community

By Mike Gandy
mikegandy@timesonline.com

The far side the Committee, who have seven board members, has not yet received and has come with the findings," said the executive director of the Police Authority and Review Committee Thursday.

The findings will be a surprise in that the group doesn't support the report of from the City Police's Internal Review involving an off-duty city officer who had a woman engaged for his murder in a Jefferson County encounter. Director Clarence thought it read the note about during the meeting.

Powerful David Hirsch told The Post that ruling means the justice system group will continue to investigate the incident and report back to the

By Mike Gandy
mikegandy@timesonline.com

The only look on him, a leader and beloved senior citizen July 10 when Fountain City's Alvin (Gene) Frye passed away at 93.

Alvin Frye was a Navy veteran of both WWI and the Korean War, he was an active member of the Fountain City Junior Club, a member of the Elks Lodge and owner and operator of the Fountain City Store for more than 25 years. Frye had a long career in the area and served the community for more than 40 years. Frye was a member of the First Baptist Church of Fountain City, a member of the Elks Lodge and was a 32nd degree Mason.

Many people considered Alvin Frye the "Community Carpenter" and his hospitality at the service station and in the community was