

Ambulance service contract renewed in split vote

By Bill Stepien
Stepien@hawaii.com

Although many news outlets are saying that ambulance services in Maui County will stay as for the time being instead of switching to a private company, the county council has voted to continue with the company it currently has.

The vote was a split 10-10 vote with one abstention. The majority of council members who did not vote were in the minority. The vote was a split 10-10 vote with one abstention. The majority of council members who did not vote were in the minority. The vote was a split 10-10 vote with one abstention. The majority of council members who did not vote were in the minority.

The decision to renew the contract was a split vote. The majority of council members who did not vote were in the minority. The vote was a split 10-10 vote with one abstention. The majority of council members who did not vote were in the minority.

Ground broken for new Morning Pointe Assisted Living

Photo by Bill Stepien

Morning Pointe officials gathered for the ground-breaking ceremony for the new 100-unit assisted living and memory care facility that will be built on the site of the old Morning Pointe Assisted Living. The new facility is a 100-unit assisted living and memory care facility that will be built on the site of the old Morning Pointe Assisted Living. The new facility is a 100-unit assisted living and memory care facility that will be built on the site of the old Morning Pointe Assisted Living.

By Bill Stepien
Stepien@hawaii.com

More than 100 people gathered for the ground-breaking ceremony for the new 100-unit assisted living and memory care facility that will be built on the site of the old Morning Pointe Assisted Living. The new facility is a 100-unit assisted living and memory care facility that will be built on the site of the old Morning Pointe Assisted Living.

Excitement and anticipation were in the air as the ground was broken for the new 100-unit assisted living and memory care facility that will be built on the site of the old Morning Pointe Assisted Living.

The new facility is a 100-unit assisted living and memory care facility that will be built on the site of the old Morning Pointe Assisted Living. The new facility is a 100-unit assisted living and memory care facility that will be built on the site of the old Morning Pointe Assisted Living.

