Major zoning changes proposed for Knox County

By [Name]

The Knox County Board of Commissioners has proposed a series of major zoning changes for the county. The changes are designed to update the county's zoning code and to provide for a variety of new uses. The changes include the creation of a new residential zone, the expansion of the commercial zone, and the creation of a new industrial zone. The changes also include the creation of a new office zone and the expansion of the existing office zone. The changes are expected to be adopted by the board in the near future.

The changes are expected to have a significant impact on the county's economy and on the quality of life for its residents. The new residential zone will provide for a variety of new housing options, including single-family homes and multi-family units. The expanded commercial zone will provide for a variety of new commercial uses, including retail stores and restaurants. The new industrial zone will provide for a variety of new industrial uses, including manufacturing and warehousing. The new office zone will provide for a variety of new office uses, including professional offices and government offices. The expanded existing office zone will provide for a variety of new office uses, including professional offices and government offices.
