

Kelsea Andrews, Sue Smartt, Rebecca Cook Pruitt, Troy Brown and Elena Brown at Foothills Title Services' Open House last week.

By Mike Steely steelym@knoxfocus.com

branches in our area.

at 516 Ebenezer

after serving in Desert

Why would an attorney change the title hypiness?

law license would give me With the formal openan advantage compared to ing of the company's third my competition regardless office at 3208 Tazewell Pike of which business I chose Thursday, Foothills Title to pursue." Brown told The Services now has three

Focus. When asked what is Attorney Tray D. Brown unique about Foothills Title founded Foothills in 1997 Services. Sue Smartt. Closto go into business. I felt a Storm and Bosnia where Pike office, was quick to he flew KC-135s with the Air Force, A UT law school "It's our customer sergraduate, he opened his vice. There are so many first office in Maryville. The underlying conditions to Blount County office is at a title search," she said. 121 Station Drive and his adding that they specialize other Knox County office is in working with buyers and sellers and dealing with estates

ing Agent for the Tazewell right answers," she said. "And having an attorney on staff sets us apart," she pointed out. Smartt.comes to Foothills Title Services after several years as owner of Acquire Title. The Fountain City lady is joined in the Tazewell Pike office by Kelsea Andrews and

The company is a full-ser-

Rebecca Cook Pruitt

vice title company handling all aspects of real estate transactions to include title searches, title insurance, commercial and residential real estate closings, and 1031s. Clients have followed Smartt to the new location and she said "If you don't selv the right the hest type of husiness referrals.

Smartt said that Brown did most of the remodeling of the Tazewell Pike office.

"We accomplish excellence through our combination of service, convenience and legal knowledge," Brown said, adding, "Our goal is to inspire utmost confidence such that from the initial order request to post-closing documentation our clients rest assured that we are taking care of their every need."

You may contact the Tazewell Pike office of Foothills Title Services by calling (865) 312-6212 or reach Smartt on email at

The 6-5 vote saw Busler win out over Michelle Carringer with Schöonmaker, Busler, Wright, Dailey, Thomas and Brantley supporting Busler, Gill, Carringer, Smith. Nystrom and Anders voted for Carringer, the 2nd District commissioner.

tion of a vice chairman. The elected county officials selected 7th District Commissioner Charles Busler

The commission then set about naming members of various committees including those of Cable TV. Court, Finance, Insolvency, Rules and the Joint Education Committee.

Proposed controversial policies sent back to board unchanged

By Pete Gawda

At their last meeting the Knox County Board of Education could not decide on the wording for two proposed controversial policies on student harassment and employee harassment. Therefore, they sent the policies back to the policy review committee for further consideration. After considerable discussion at their Wednesday. September 20 meeting, the policy review committee sent those two proposed policies back to the board of education with the wording that had been recommended by legal counsel... The committee's discussion centered around