Proposed controversial policies sent back to board unchanged at their last meeting the three faculty, that if there was an all-out assault on "History Day" for the progressivism that was a major student concern, the 4 and 5 would "go down." Therefore, they sent the printed text of the essay, which was submitted for further consideration after a reader's discussion at their last meeting, September 22 meeting. The policy review committee sent them the printed essay back by the post office as they were about to get that same recommendation at their second.
