

County Commission to vote on unauthorized school system purchase

By Mike Smith
Springfield, Mass.

Springfield County Commission today voted 10-0 to sue the Springfield School District for $1.5 million to recover the cost of a purchase of a new school building that the district claims was unauthorized.

The county commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million. The commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million.

The county commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million. The commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million.

The county commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million. The commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million.

The county commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million. The commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million.

The county commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million. The commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million.

The county commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million. The commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million.

First tournament trip nets state title for Berean Christian

Members of the Berean Christian volleyball team celebrate their victory in the state title game. The team's victory in the state title game was a historic moment for the school. The team's victory in the state title game was a historic moment for the school.

Byline

The county commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million. The commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million.

The county commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million. The commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million.

The county commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million. The commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million.

The county commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million. The commission said it was not authorized to purchase the building, which the district claims was purchased for $1.5 million.