The apparently unauthorized purchase of a $1.5 million sports equipment contract by the county school system is the subject of a vote scheduled for Tuesday night by the county commission. The vote may be the last on the subject before the commission.

While the vote is scheduled for Tuesday night, the commission is expected to vote on the contract before the school system. The commission will also vote on a contract for a new school system and a contract for a new school system. The vote is expected to be held on Tuesday night, but the commission may also vote on the contract before the school system.
