

Veterans Day Parade to draw thousands

The annual Veterans Day Parade in Knoxville is expected to draw thousands of spectators to downtown the city on Monday, Nov. 14. The parade will feature a variety of military units, bands, and floats. The parade will start at 10 a.m. and will travel down Broadway Street from the downtown area to the city center. The parade is a celebration of the service and sacrifice of the men and women who have served in the United States Armed Forces. The parade is a tradition that has been held in Knoxville since 1945. The parade is a great way to show appreciation for the men and women who have served in the United States Armed Forces. The parade is a great way to show appreciation for the men and women who have served in the United States Armed Forces. The parade is a great way to show appreciation for the men and women who have served in the United States Armed Forces.

Group of men in suits standing together indoors, likely at a legislative event.

Central High adding four to Wall of Fame

Central High School is proud to announce the addition of four new members to its Wall of Fame. The new members are: [Name], [Name], [Name], and [Name]. These individuals have made significant contributions to the school and the community. The Wall of Fame is a tribute to the outstanding students who have graduated from Central High School. The Wall of Fame is a tribute to the outstanding students who have graduated from Central High School. The Wall of Fame is a tribute to the outstanding students who have graduated from Central High School.

Dave Wright kicks off his Tennessee legislative race

Dave Wright has officially kicked off his campaign for the Tennessee House of Representatives. Wright is running for the 1st district seat. Wright is a former member of the Tennessee House of Representatives. Wright is a former member of the Tennessee House of Representatives. Wright is a former member of the Tennessee House of Representatives. Wright is a former member of the Tennessee House of Representatives. Wright is a former member of the Tennessee House of Representatives.

Commission rule changes to be discussed

The Commission on the Future of the State is set to discuss proposed rule changes. The commission is a group of experts who are studying the state's government and making recommendations for improvement. The commission is a group of experts who are studying the state's government and making recommendations for improvement. The commission is a group of experts who are studying the state's government and making recommendations for improvement. The commission is a group of experts who are studying the state's government and making recommendations for improvement.

Quality personal training services
 Personal training services for individuals and groups. Contact us today for a free consultation.

GOAT DRIVE
 Nov. 1-30
 Support local businesses and charities. Join the GOAT Drive today!

Historic Walking Tours
 Explore the rich history of Knoxville with our guided walking tours. Book your tour today!