

Pictured at Wright's reception last week are Col. Richard Jellison, State Representative Harry Brooks, Commissioner Dave Wright, former Commissioner Jack Huddleston and Law Director Bud Armstrong

Photo by David Wright

of Fame

On September 9, 2017, four noteworthy graduates of Central High School will be inducted into the "Hall of Fame."

The late Hazel Ogg Costa, Class of 1912, was an inspiration to her famous daughter, but also noteworthy for a life devoted to charity and patriotic causes.

The grandeur of the 100-year-old Greenlee's Bicycle Shop, Conrad Majors, Class of 1954, also taught

Hazel Ogg Costa

Conrad Majors

Dave Wright kicks off his Tennessee legislative race

By Mike Stealy
stealyjournalism.com

In an evening that filled the house at the Coryton Senior Center, Commissioner Dave Wright kicked off his campaign called these qualities "a solid base." He called Wright a great commissioner and good commissioner chairman.

Wright returned the compliment saying that Brooks "did a great job for 58 years."

with him through the U. S. Army, where he served as a Lieutenant, and during his AT&T career.

Among those present were Richard Armstrong, Tim Wheeler, Mike McMillan, Pat