Kids' Coupon Book Money to be Spent on Lavish Banquet?

It's a common sight in the city of Knoxville: a young child holding a coupon book. The coupons are for various local businesses, and the child is likely to be seen at a store, ready to use one of the coupons. But what happens to the money from these coupons? A recent report suggests that the money is being used for a lavish banquet.

The report, which was published in a local newspaper, states that the money from the coupons is being used to fund a banquet for the children of the city. The banquet is described as being "lavish" and "expensive." The report also states that the money is being used to fund a variety of other activities, including a trip to a foreign country.
