

Christmas in the City Begins Friday, Nov. 26

The City of San Francisco will celebrate the start of the Christmas season with a variety of events and activities. The city's official Christmas tree lighting ceremony will take place on Friday, Nov. 26, at 7 p.m. at the San Francisco War Memorial and Performing Arts Center. The ceremony will be broadcast live on KQED-TV and KQED.com.

The city's official Christmas tree, which was planted in 1946, will be lit by Mayor Ed Lee and the Mayor's family. The tree is located in the atrium of the War Memorial and Performing Arts Center. The city's official Christmas tree is a 100-foot tall Douglas fir tree.

The city's official Christmas tree lighting ceremony is one of the most popular events in the city. It is a tradition that has been celebrated for over 60 years. The ceremony is a festive event that brings the community together to celebrate the start of the Christmas season.

The city's official Christmas tree lighting ceremony is a tradition that has been celebrated for over 60 years. The ceremony is a festive event that brings the community together to celebrate the start of the Christmas season.

A group of people, including children and adults, standing together for a photo. Some are holding large, round objects, possibly balloons or awards.

KCRTA awards scholarships at annual luncheon

The KCRTA (Kaiser County Regional Transportation Authority) held its annual luncheon on Friday, Nov. 26, at the San Francisco War Memorial and Performing Arts Center. The luncheon was held to honor and award scholarships to students who have demonstrated academic excellence and leadership.