

GOLDEN GUYS

By Jeff Hertzberg

The football fighting that ended the season after capturing the MHSAA Class 4A state football championship with a shut-out win three Thursday nights at home, lost to Luskville. The day and were played in front of 10,000 fans.

Overcrowding at Lonsdale discussed at school board meeting

MPC membership questioned by County Commission

By Jeff Hertzberg
jeff@valleymail.com

Several voters were present at the Monday night meeting of the county commission, which is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county.

The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county.

The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county.

The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county.

The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county.

The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county. The commission is the governing body of the county.