HOLIDAY HELPERS

Central High School junior Ambassador Lashaun Rogers enjoys her time spending time at the Anatomy of Town High school student athletes have stepped up again during the holiday season this year. See more and more photos at Sports at Knoxville.com/photos.

Ms. Senior United States

Royalty appeared at the Friends of Strongest Senior Competition Ambassador Day. (L-R) Ms. Senior Tennessee Diamond Competition Collins-Hughes, Ms. Senior Tennessee Diamond Ms. Ms. Senior United States Lauren Monahan, Cole Woodbury, and Ms. Senior Tennessee Debbie Wade.

Royalty is crowned in Knoxville

By Kate Smith

Monday, was made December 10 at the Knox Christian Center when Lauren Monahan, current ruler of the center and former Ms. Senior Tennessee was crowned as the first ever Ms. Senior United States. The event, hosted by Chance Ministries, Inc., was a benefit for the Knoxville Ms. Senior Pageant, who is a friend of Ms. Monahan.

"This is a dream," Ms. Monahan said as she was crowned. Ms. Wade was crowned by Ms. Monahan and was also crowned by Ms. Senior Pageants, an organization dedicated to honoring women and daughters of The United States of America through Ms. Senior Universe and other programs. The Ms. Senior Universe Pageant is for ladies 50 and over and has been produced for a number of years. However, Monahan is the first Ms. Senior United States, who is now over 60 years old. [...]

Continued on page A