History was made December 13 at the Frank R. Strang Senior Center when Lauren Monahan, coordinator of the center and former Ms. Senior Tennessee, was crowned as the first Ms. Senior United States. She was crowned by Donna McGuffie, the reigning Ms. Senior Universe, who is a friend of Ms. Monahan.

"This is so special," Ms. McGuffie said as she crowned Monahan. McGuffie was representing the Ms. Senior Pageant Group which seeks to honor the women and daughters of "The Greatest Generation" through Ms. Senior Universe and other pageants. The Ms. Senior Universe Pageant is for ladies 60 and over and has been presented
