

series.
You will find everything from a $100,000 Case Club School Board Sign to John Deere items and portable machines. There are small items, too, original oil tool bits with serials, and antique electrical wiring meter.

Other items include coin-operated thermometers, _____ Click on page 2

Escalante City. Escalante owner Greg Lawrence puts the finishing touches on the items for sale at Saturday's annual Advertisment and Big Auction. "It's fast year's advertisement with worked visitors, from more than 100 states in addition, from all across the country," Lawrence told The Press.

Hyatt Place ceremonies cap a year of redevelopment

By Mike Supply
mike@tribune.com

The recent ceremonies opening Hyatt Place in the Glenview ended a year of renovation and construction projects that the City of Evanston is very proud of. The Hyatt Place is a full renovation of the hundred-year-old Fenwick Hotel by a very engaged Owner Development. It is also just one of the many, many improvements taking place in Evanston.

The new Hyatt branded hotel in the city will feature the brand's modern design, vibrant atmosphere and practical amenities like free Wi-Fi and 24-hour food offerings. The 100-

MLK Celebration begins Friday

By Mike Supply
mike@tribune.com

"Transforming the Community by Committing to Service" is this year's theme of Evanston's annual celebration of the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King. The celebration starts with a 2000 and features various events including the popular parade march.

Eight days of celebrations starts Friday with a walk-off at