

From Concord to Wild Blue Yonder

After following an intense 10-week and 100-hour training and internship, the Concord Christian School senior is up in with the top three candidates representing Concord in the 2016-17 legislative session. The Concord School of Leadership and Public Administration will have a role in the upcoming election year in the 2016-17 legislative session.

Changes in allowance, outside auditor terms on county commission agenda next week

By Mike Hough
HoughMedia.com

Changes in the county's allowance, outside auditor terms on county commission agenda next week

The 11th agenda item, which involves the hiring of a new auditor, is the first item on the agenda. It is the first item in the 11th year of the county's new contract with the county's new auditor. The county's new auditor is the first item on the agenda. The county's new auditor is the first item on the agenda.

The proposed audit is currently in progress. The county's new auditor is the first item on the agenda. The county's new auditor is the first item on the agenda.

Continued on page 2

South Knox Alliance holds Candidate Forum

By Mike Hough
HoughMedia.com

The South Knox Alliance held a candidate forum on Wednesday, April 13, at the South Knox Alliance. The forum was held at the South Knox Alliance. The forum was held at the South Knox Alliance.

Knox County Schools Receive