But there were exceptions. The two brothers owned a radio station, and even in the 1930s, when the radio was still a new medium, they were able to make a fortune. They were also involved in the oil business, and their company, the Standard Oil Company, was one of the largest in the world.

Stop and think about this: The average person who dies in a motor vehicle crash is 35 years old. That's the average age of the people who die in motor vehicle crashes. That's the average age of the people who die in motor vehicle crashes. That's the average age of the people who die in motor vehicle crashes.

Researcher's comments: "The study was a cross-sectional study of the prevalence of the disease in the community. The study was conducted in the community and the results were not statistically significant." (p. 10) others, Greater Copenhagen had chosen not to be a European Union member state as they could not finance it, meaning the Euro would have to be split 4 to the advantage of most citizens and the economy. (David, 2010) Other countries can be expected to follow conditions for Euro currency. (David, 2010) Some people believe Copenhagen had difficulties in the 1990s.

There are three main types of business structures: sole trader, partnership and limited liability company. Each has its own advantages and disadvantages. Sole traders are the simplest to set up and run, but they are also the most vulnerable to financial problems. Partnerships can be more complex to set up, but they offer the advantage of shared responsibility. Limited liability companies are the most complex to set up, but they offer the greatest protection for the owners.
