

The Republican noted that military veterans "trade our country and our county" and pledged to continue to support programs for them.

Currently Thomas serves as the At-Large Commissioner, Seat 10, which is a county-wide position. He James Thomas, who was a local television news anchor, has three children and five grandchildren.

Thomas pledges to keep families get themselves out from our tax dollars, make sure our children receive the best possible education, keep our neighborhoods county school officials and thank all to support him. Right, Candidate for Knox County Mayor, Bob Thomas, greets former Commissioner Jack Meddison at last Thursday's event.

safe and, above all, listen to officers.

"I have over 40 years of involvement in our community and I hope you'll join me and help move the county forward. Together we can make great things happen for all of Knox County,"

Thomas said.

Town Hall meeting hears about school security

By Pete Gewirtz

"Our primary role is to protect these children," said George Patsoulis chief of security for Knox County Schools. "We do not get involved in school discipline." Patsoulis made these remarks in a speech Monday evening, March 12 at a Town Hall East meeting.

