

By Mike Doyle

City Council asked board member and candidate Andrew Roscoe whether a large crowd at the South Shore Alliance candidate picnic last week at Shogun Brewery (above).

one week after the election to decide those who have related to it so often they are leaving others free. The council members introduced the candidates and passed the discussion questions.

Candidates using the first speaker of the evening, Mayor Roscoe asked an audience of 100 to discuss the question: "What would you like to see in our city?"

Mayor Roscoe, who currently serves as the City Council and is running for re-election, asked the question: "What would you like to see in our city?"

City Council member Roscoe has a question for children and adults: "What would you like to see in our city?"

Roscoe asked about the question: "What would you like to see in our city?"

He was a member of the city's Board of Education, which is the city's governing body. He was also a member of the city's Board of Education, which is the city's governing body.

Roscoe asked about the question: "What would you like to see in our city?"

...Continued on page 2

Questions answered at mayoral candidate debate

By Mike Doyle
@mikedoyle

Two weeks before the city election, candidates debated the questions at South Shore Alliance at Shogun Brewery.

Two weeks before the city election, candidates debated the questions at South Shore Alliance at Shogun Brewery.

Two weeks before the city election, candidates debated the questions at South Shore Alliance at Shogun Brewery.

Two weeks before the city election, candidates debated the questions at South Shore Alliance at Shogun Brewery.

What about a Mayor Government in Essex County?

Early voting starts Wednesday

By Mike Doyle
@mikedoyle

Early voting in Essex County begins Wednesday and the voters are asked to vote early to help the election process.

Early voting in Essex County begins Wednesday and the voters are asked to vote early to help the election process.