

Community leaders gathered at the City of San Diego's Community Development Department to discuss the proposed development of a new housing project in the city's central business district.

Police committee discusses complaints against Barker and Thomas

By [Name]

The police committee discussed complaints against two officers, Barker and Thomas, during a meeting held last night. The committee, which is made up of representatives from the community and the police department, is responsible for reviewing and resolving complaints against police officers.

The committee heard testimony from both officers and from the complainants. Barker and Thomas both denied the allegations against them. The committee will make a decision on the complaints by the end of the month.

The committee also discussed other issues, including the need for more training for police officers and the importance of community involvement in the police department's work.

Proposed 2014-15 Budget

By [Name]

The city's proposed 2014-15 budget is a balanced budget that will maintain the city's fiscal health while addressing the needs of the community. The budget includes funding for a variety of city services, including police, fire, and public works.

The budget also includes funding for a number of new initiatives, including a new housing program and a new community development program. The city's financial officer, [Name], said that the budget is a "responsible and realistic" plan for the city's future.