

By Steve Wang

Thomas is a former County Commissioner with extensive experience in the construction industry. He has been a member of the county board and was a member of the county board for the last several years.

Thomas is a former County Commissioner of Loudoun County, Virginia. He has been a member of the county board and was a member of the county board for the last several years. He has been a member of the county board and was a member of the county board for the last several years. He has been a member of the county board and was a member of the county board for the last several years.

Thomas is a former County Commissioner with extensive experience in the construction industry. He has been a member of the county board and was a member of the county board for the last several years.

Thomas is a former County Commissioner with extensive experience in the construction industry. He has been a member of the county board and was a member of the county board for the last several years.

Thomas is a former County Commissioner with extensive experience in the construction industry. He has been a member of the county board and was a member of the county board for the last several years.

Early voting as heavy as expected

By Mike Smith
mike.smith@timesfreeman.com

The Republican primary for Loudoun County Board and Board of Supervisors was very early, with all four precincts well ahead of the scheduled time. The election was held on Tuesday morning.

John Rogers, chairman of the Republican primary, said the election was very early, with all four precincts well ahead of the scheduled time.

