

A large blue and white WWII bomber airplane is displayed in a hangar. In the foreground, a man in a white naval uniform stands next to a large American flag. Other flags, including a Union Jack and a red flag, are also visible. The scene is set in a large, open hangar with a high ceiling.

RAM's Salute to Service includes WWII airplane from D-Day

Project Grad, sidewalk study on Work Session agenda

By Mike Smith
mike.smith@timesherald.com

When they meet Tuesday afternoon inside Lakeside High School, the members of the Project Grad committee will have an agenda that includes a lot more than just the graduation ceremony. The committee will also discuss the school's role in the community and the school's role in the future.

The committee will also discuss the school's role in the community and the school's role in the future. The committee will also discuss the school's role in the community and the school's role in the future.

The committee will also discuss the school's role in the community and the school's role in the future. The committee will also discuss the school's role in the community and the school's role in the future.

The committee will also discuss the school's role in the community and the school's role in the future. The committee will also discuss the school's role in the community and the school's role in the future.

The committee will also discuss the school's role in the community and the school's role in the future. The committee will also discuss the school's role in the community and the school's role in the future.