

PHOTO BY KEN LAY

Members of the Walter P. Taylor Boys and Girls Club select their gifts at a recent Christmas in June party. The presents were donated by the Friendly Readers Book Club. The book club also sponsored a citywide bus tour for the children on Saturday, June 2.

goats, and shopping center changes

By Mike Steely
steelym@knoxfocus.com

Busking is a term used for entertaining in public, often with music or other performance, and it is more or less legal in downtown Knoxville. You've probably seen these performers at Market Square, in Happy Holler or other places around town.

The city council discussed limiting loud speaker amplification of those performances on public property and right-of-ways Tuesday and passed, on first reading, to do so.

Councilwoman Lauren Rider said she has been getting a lot of complaints from residents