

Republicans call for unity heading to November election

By
Staff
Reporter

News
Sen. Tommy Tuberville (R-TN) and Rep. Bob Gooden (R-TN) are calling for unity among Republicans in Tennessee as they head into the November election. Tuberville, who is running for re-election to the U.S. House of Representatives, and Gooden, who is running for re-election to the U.S. House of Representatives, are both members of the House of Representatives. They are both members of the House of Representatives. They are both members of the House of Representatives.

Sen. Tommy Tuberville (R-TN) and Rep. Bob Gooden (R-TN) are calling for unity among Republicans in Tennessee as they head into the November election. Tuberville, who is running for re-election to the U.S. House of Representatives, and Gooden, who is running for re-election to the U.S. House of Representatives, are both members of the House of Representatives. They are both members of the House of Representatives. They are both members of the House of Representatives.

The crowd gathered for the celebration at Gibbs Middle School.

Eagles of all ages flock to Gibbs Middle celebration

By
Staff
Reporter

Students and staff at Gibbs Middle School celebrated the school's 50th anniversary with a large gathering. The celebration featured a variety of activities, including a parade and a performance by the school's marching band. The school's mascot, the eagle, was a central focus of the event.

Board of Education meets, evaluates, Strategic Plan

News

The Board of Education met to evaluate the district's Strategic Plan. The board members discussed the plan's progress and identified areas for improvement. The plan focuses on enhancing student learning and improving school operations. The board members discussed the plan's progress and identified areas for improvement. The plan focuses on enhancing student learning and improving school operations.

Ethics Committee may change procedure rules Wednesday

By
Staff
Reporter

The Ethics Committee is expected to vote on changes to its procedural rules on Wednesday. The committee is responsible for overseeing the conduct of public officials. The proposed changes aim to streamline the committee's processes and improve its effectiveness.

The Ethics Committee is expected to vote on changes to its procedural rules on Wednesday. The committee is responsible for overseeing the conduct of public officials. The proposed changes aim to streamline the committee's processes and improve its effectiveness.

Surprises in Thursday's election

News

Several unexpected results were seen in Thursday's election. In one race, a candidate who was considered a long shot won. In another, a candidate who was expected to win lost. The results were surprising to many observers.

Fontaine City Services
For all your Service
Needs

ROBBINS CLEANERS
Professional Dry Cleaning & More
in Fontaine City
Full Service Dry Cleaning & Laundry
888-2791 www.robbinscleaners.com

Wash Your Way $97,000
Wash Your Way
WASHER
Call 888-2791

