

Ed and Bob sign off with last 'Night Out'

Ed and Bob, the two men who have been instrumental in the success of the 'Night Out' event, are signing off on their final year. The event, which has been a major fundraiser for the city, is set to conclude on Friday night. The two men, who have been instrumental in the success of the event, are signing off on their final year. The event, which has been a major fundraiser for the city, is set to conclude on Friday night.

Ed and Bob, the two men who have been instrumental in the success of the 'Night Out' event, are signing off on their final year. The event, which has been a major fundraiser for the city, is set to conclude on Friday night.

Hollywood Blvd zoning, sports insurance and new greenway before city council

The city council will hear reports on zoning for Hollywood Blvd, sports insurance, and a new greenway project. The council meeting is scheduled for next week. The reports will cover the progress of these projects and the city's plans for the future.

KCSO pension dispute going to court

The Knoxville County School Officers' Association (KCSO) has filed a lawsuit against the county over a pension dispute. The lawsuit claims that the county has failed to honor its pension obligations to the teachers. The case is expected to go to court in the coming months.

Teachers protest Haslam's 'Listening Tour'

Teachers are protesting Governor Haslam's 'Listening Tour' in Knoxville. They are holding signs and chanting slogans to express their dissatisfaction with the governor's policies. The protest is part of a larger movement to demand better education funding and policies.

Sale of Andrew Johnson Building on hold

The sale of the Andrew Johnson Building has been put on hold. The city council has decided to delay the sale until further notice. The building is a historic landmark and its future is still uncertain. The city is currently reviewing the options and the impact of the sale on the community.

Real Estate
 Call us today for more information.
 800-444-8034

800-444-8034
 Real Estate
 Call us today for more information.

Real Estate
 Call us today for more information.
 800-444-8034