

meeting.
All work will be reviewed for compliance with the provisions of the commission's report meeting tonight.

Executive Power Politics New Energy center, visit with At-Large Commissioners Bill Brunette, left, and Rob Thomas, right, at Ed and Matt's last Commission? Night the Monday evening at Wright's Cafe.

Searcher services and others, reported to the first reading and then presented along the table connector, and several
.....(Continued on page 2)

KCSD pension dispute going to court

By Mike Smedley
msmedley@ksat.com

Should pensions for former and future teachers in only the state's Department of Education vary on the vacation days that have been added to pension calculations? Or should the pensions only include 70% of their regular monthly salaries for the last two years?

That's the question that will be before Circuit Court on Friday, September 7.
Because the First County case Department controversy was a matter of how county the law director used an outside firm to ask the Pension Board to include those vacated days in calculations. The difference could be thousands of dollars in retained pension, some more than 10%

Miss. Protesters gather at Ed's Elementary School Friday afternoon to protest Governor Bill Haslam's "Listening Tour" regard to a myriad of problems with the state's (K-12) testing program for students. Below, Governor Bill Haslam, center, and Thomas on Department of Education Commissioner Leanne Wigmore, left. Below is journalist Wayne Miller during the listening tour at Ed's Elementary School.

Teachers protest Haslam's 'Listening Tour'

By Peter Hall
The use of force for the state is a