

Ed and Bob sign off with last 'Night Out'

Ed and Bob, the two men who have been instrumental in the success of the 'Night Out' event, are signing off on their final year. The event, which has been a major fundraiser for the city, is set to conclude this year. The two men, who have been instrumental in the success of the event, are signing off on their final year. The event, which has been a major fundraiser for the city, is set to conclude this year.

Ed and Bob, the two men who have been instrumental in the success of the 'Night Out' event, are signing off on their final year. The event, which has been a major fundraiser for the city, is set to conclude this year.

Hollywood Blvd paving, sports insurance and new greenway before city council

The city council will be presented with a report on the progress of several key projects, including the paving of Hollywood Blvd, the implementation of sports insurance, and the development of a new greenway. The report will be presented to the council before a public hearing.

KCSO pension dispute going to court

A long-standing dispute between the Knoxville County Sheriff's Office (KCSO) and the county over pension issues has finally reached the courts. The case involves the pension benefits for KCSO employees and the county's financial obligations.

Teachers protest Haslam's 'Listening Tour'

Teachers are protesting Governor Haslam's 'Listening Tour' in response to perceived lack of support for education. The protest involves a group of teachers holding signs and demonstrating in front of government buildings.

Sale of Andrew Johnson Building on hold

The sale of the Andrew Johnson Building, a major project for the city, has been put on hold. The city council has decided to delay the sale until further notice due to various logistical and financial concerns.

Real Estate
 Listings and contact information for local real estate agents.

888-444-8034
 Local business advertisement featuring a logo and contact details.

Real Estate
 Listings and contact information for local real estate agents.