

encourage minorities, women and veterans to qualify to do business with the county.

"We're not putting out government, but the people" decided the utilization of public is and concluded, "It's time to get out there and buy some stuff" the remains and the installation of newly elected River County Sheriff Tom Spangler were the two incidents that brought the packed crowd in the City County

San Joaquin is more in an area River County Sheriff/Deputy Sheriff meeting. With him at the ceremony are wife Linda, right, mother Shirley, left, and other members of his family.

Building to its feet.

The main assembly room was packed down stairs and upstairs with family and friends. One notable guest was that of Charles Suarez. He was accompanied by his wife Ellen and took the oath from his father, Judge Charles D. Suarez, Jr.

San Joaquin County Sheriff

Tom Buchenbinder at the beginning of the installation ceremonies and introduced each newly or re-elected official, who appeared for the oath then using the "National Anthem" and "March to the Scaffold".

Pastor Gary Arnold of Overcoming Barriers Church gave the invocation and Pastor Lawrence Smith of Union College gave the benediction.

Major Road Plan Update Available

SJC staff recently completed an update to the Major Road Plan, a tool used to coordinate and regulate land use. An overview of these changes will be presented at the Metropolitan Planning Commission's September Agenda Review, which is open to the public. The meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 22, in the Small Assembly Room of the City County Building, 400 Main St., Riverside, 92502.

By Mike Swamy
mswamy@northsidechurch.com

At the entrance to the church is a simple white post with words written on both sides representing four different religions: Christian, Jewish, Buddhist and Muslim. All of the simple pictures reflect the same ideal: "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

That's the creed of the Northside Christian Church. Morning services follow the sermon in the Fellowship Hall. Rev. Arig Hasekian is the minister you have endorsed the church for 20 years.

The congregation selected a very historic site to build, around 1870-1875. Tomasz, founder of the church, Northside Christian was on the site of lot 11. Georgia married with her farm. George

Northside Christian Church to celebrate 60 years

A simple white post stands at the entrance of the Northside Christian Church, providing in four languages the motto that the church offers as you would have them do unto you.