

City holding 9/11 memorial events

The City of Knoxville is holding a series of memorial events to honor the victims of the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. The events include a candlelight vigil on Oct. 11, a memorial service on Oct. 12, and a parade on Oct. 13. The city is also holding a series of educational programs for students in the area.

Tennessee Valley Fair now open

The Tennessee Valley Fair is now open at the Knoxville Convention Center. The fair features a wide variety of exhibits, including agricultural displays, craft shows, and entertainment. The event is expected to draw thousands of visitors over the next several weeks.

Personnel Board voting may go on to Nov. 12

The Personnel Board's meeting on Oct. 11 was adjourned without action on several items. The board is expected to reconvene on Nov. 12 to complete its business. The items on the agenda include the appointment of new staff members and the review of current personnel policies.

New members welcomed to Knox County School Board

The Knox County School Board has welcomed three new members to its ranks. The new members are [Name], [Name], and [Name]. They will be serving on the board for the next two-year term.

The board is pleased to have these new members join the team. They will be working with the board to ensure the highest quality of education for all students in Knox County.

The board will hold its next meeting on [Date]. The meeting will be held at [Location]. The board is open to public comment and will accept comments from the public during the meeting.

The board is committed to transparency and accountability. The board will provide regular updates on its activities and decisions. The board is also committed to working with the community to address the needs of our students.

For more information, please contact the school board office at [Phone Number]. The office is located at [Address].

Nystrom becomes commission chairman in split vote

At a recent meeting, the commission held a split vote to elect its new chairman. Nystrom received the majority of the votes and was elected to the position. The commission will continue to work on its agenda for the coming year.

The commission is pleased with the election of Nystrom as chairman. Nystrom has a strong background in public service and is expected to lead the commission effectively.

The commission will hold its next meeting on [Date]. The meeting will be held at [Location]. The commission is open to public comment and will accept comments from the public during the meeting.

Nystrom and [Name] are shown at the commission meeting. Nystrom was elected chairman of the commission.

City of Knoxville
 [Image of a person working at a desk]

888-844-8034
 [Image of a spade card with the number 4]

FREE
 [Image of a person working at a desk]