

tion.

Leaving the council are Molly Gilbert, Fran Nichols, Rob Lewis, Molly Conway and Amy Mills.

The council is made up of neighborhood leaders and activists which

(805) 215-3232 and have a hard copy mailed to you. Deadline for submitting an opinion is Friday. You can also contact the Office of Neighborhoods at dsharps@ncvillains.gov.

Community Meeting tomorrow to discuss Oakwood Neighborhood Overlay

A meeting to discuss a potential design overlay district for a portion of the Oakwood neighborhood has been scheduled for September 18, 2014. The meeting will be held and be most beneficial to them.

Though the purpose of the two options are similar, there are some distinct differences. Neighborhood Conservation

PHOTO BY JEFFREY L. HARRIS

South Doyle High senior Phoebe Dorring (left) and Joe Velas, Catholic's senior captain, go one on one in a Thursday soccer match at Catholic. The Lady Irish prevailed 10-1 to improve their record to 13-2. Please see high school sports coverage in Sports & Recreation, Section C.

Center Middle School Students Hanged at