

special session on pension suit

By Mike Stealy
mike@timesfree.com

Union County Mayor Glenn Barker has called a special session of the county commission to mandate a discussion about the retirement he approved for the person County Executive has suit. The retirement did not get enough votes to be passed in the commission regular agenda last week (see Thomas retirement defeated by commission's vote) and this special meeting seems to be an attempt to nullify the results of Monday's vote.

In a release to his fellow commissioners Chairman Hugh Lockman posted Thursday that the mayor has the option of calling a special session and the chairman is mandated to Union County Mayor Glenn Barker watches the county commission debate a proposal he made during Monday's week session.

the Retirement and Pension Board, says Assistant Robert Carlsell, Mike L. Carlsell, Gregory Long, Gregory A. Galt, James Prochard, Kevin Butler, Secretary of Service Center, J. David Miller and

meeting short and sweet

By Anna Pines

Chairman Terry Hill called Wednesday's meeting to order at 6:15 p.m. The day was presented by the Senior High School (SHS) which was celebrating the 100th of its opening. All nine members of the school board were present.

Chairman Hill began the meeting by congratulating several district representatives. Another item for receiving an Outstanding Community Schools Award from the University of Tennessee. Terry and Patricia in Teacher Education Department.

Chairman Hill called in Commissioner Latta to share information about the new and First District Representative Terry Hill to find these last night.