

After this, groups of people will be invited to sing songs and dance, and the celebration will conclude with a fireworks display. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, call 708-394-2222.

Survivors celebrated at 10th Pink Ribbon Celebration

By David H. Hays

A group of survivors of breast cancer gathered for the 10th Annual Pink Ribbon Celebration at the Elmhurst Convention Center on Saturday, Oct. 10. The event was held to raise awareness of breast cancer and to support the American Cancer Society's efforts to fight the disease. The celebration featured a variety of activities, including a fashion show, a live performance by the Elmhurst High School marching band, and a silent auction.

The event was held at the Elmhurst Convention Center, which is a large, modern facility located in the heart of the city. The celebration was a success, with over 1,000 people attending and more than $10,000 raised for the American Cancer Society. The event was a testament to the strength and resilience of breast cancer survivors, and it served as a reminder of the importance of early detection and treatment.

The American Cancer Society is a national organization dedicated to the fight against cancer. It provides a wide range of services, including research, education, and support for patients and their families. The society's efforts have led to significant advances in the treatment and prevention of cancer, and it continues to work hard to make a difference in the lives of people affected by the disease.

The event was a testament to the strength and resilience of breast cancer survivors, and it served as a reminder of the importance of early detection and treatment.

The event was a success, with over 1,000 people attending and more than $10,000 raised for the American Cancer Society. The event was a testament to the strength and resilience of breast cancer survivors, and it served as a reminder of the importance of early detection and treatment.

The event was a success, with over 1,000 people attending and more than $10,000 raised for the American Cancer Society. The event was a testament to the strength and resilience of breast cancer survivors, and it served as a reminder of the importance of early detection and treatment.

Chancellor rules in favor of mayor, county commission

By David H. Hays

October 10, 2000

The Chancellor of the County of Cook has ruled in favor of the Mayor and the County Commission in a dispute over the allocation of funds for the construction of a new police station. The ruling was issued after a lengthy legal battle, and it represents a significant victory for the Mayor and the Commission. The new police station is a major project for the county, and it is expected to be completed in the near future.

By David H. Hays
October 10, 2000

The Chancellor of the County of Cook has ruled in favor of the Mayor and the County Commission in a dispute over the allocation of funds for the construction of a new police station. The ruling was issued after a lengthy legal battle, and it represents a significant victory for the Mayor and the Commission.

The new police station is a major project for the county, and it is expected to be completed in the near future. The ruling was issued after a lengthy legal battle, and it represents a significant victory for the Mayor and the Commission. The Chancellor's decision was based on the fact that the Mayor and the Commission had provided a clear and concise plan for the construction of the new station, and that the plan was in the best interests of the county.

The Chancellor's decision was based on the fact that the Mayor and the Commission had provided a clear and concise plan for the construction of the new station, and that the plan was in the best interests of the county. The ruling was issued after a lengthy legal battle, and it represents a significant victory for the Mayor and the Commission.

The ruling was issued after a lengthy legal battle, and it represents a significant victory for the Mayor and the Commission. The Chancellor's decision was based on the fact that the Mayor and the Commission had provided a clear and concise plan for the construction of the new station, and that the plan was in the best interests of the county. The new police station is a major project for the county, and it is expected to be completed in the near future.

The new police station is a major project for the county, and it is expected to be completed in the near future. The ruling was issued after a lengthy legal battle, and it represents a significant victory for the Mayor and the Commission. The Chancellor's decision was based on the fact that the Mayor and the Commission had provided a clear and concise plan for the construction of the new station, and that the plan was in the best interests of the county.

The Chancellor's decision was based on the fact that the Mayor and the Commission had provided a clear and concise plan for the construction of the new station, and that the plan was in the best interests of the county. The ruling was issued after a lengthy legal battle, and it represents a significant victory for the Mayor and the Commission. The new police station is a major project for the county, and it is expected to be completed in the near future.