

examines a variety of items

By Anna Wilson

The November 1, 2024 meeting of the Board of Education, which is a part of the district's annual meeting, will be a significant day for the district. The board will be reviewing a variety of items, including the annual report of the superintendent, the annual report of the district's financial officer, and the annual report of the district's legal officer. The board will also be reviewing the annual report of the district's athletic director, which will include a summary of the district's athletic programs and a list of the district's athletes who have been named to the All-State team. The board will also be reviewing the annual report of the district's music director, which will include a summary of the district's music programs and a list of the district's musicians who have been named to the All-State team.

The board will also be reviewing the annual report of the district's art director, which will include a summary of the district's art programs and a list of the district's artists who have been named to the All-State team. The board will also be reviewing the annual report of the district's drama director, which will include a summary of the district's drama programs and a list of the district's actors who have been named to the All-State team. The board will also be reviewing the annual report of the district's dance director, which will include a summary of the district's dance programs and a list of the district's dancers who have been named to the All-State team. The board will also be reviewing the annual report of the district's golf director, which will include a summary of the district's golf programs and a list of the district's golfers who have been named to the All-State team.

The board will also be reviewing the annual report of the district's tennis director, which will include a summary of the district's tennis programs and a list of the district's tennis players who have been named to the All-State team. The board will also be reviewing the annual report of the district's swimming director, which will include a summary of the district's swimming programs and a list of the district's swimmers who have been named to the All-State team. The board will also be reviewing the annual report of the district's wrestling director, which will include a summary of the district's wrestling programs and a list of the district's wrestlers who have been named to the All-State team.

Halls Middle School principal Bruce Hamilton and athletic director Bill Brown present the banner to the faculty and staff. The banner is a tribute to Coach Richard Lee, who passed away in 2023. The banner is a tribute to Coach Richard Lee, who passed away in 2023. The banner is a tribute to Coach Richard Lee, who passed away in 2023.

Halls Middle School celebrates life of fallen coach and educator

By Anna Wilson

The Halls Middle School community is celebrating the life of a fallen coach and educator, Coach Richard Lee, who passed away in 2023. The school is holding a memorial service for Coach Lee, which will be held on November 1, 2024. The memorial service will be held in the gymnasium of the school, and it will be a day of celebration for the school community.

The memorial service will be held in the gymnasium of the school, and it will be a day of celebration for the school community. The memorial service will be held in the gymnasium of the school, and it will be a day of celebration for the school community. The memorial service will be held in the gymnasium of the school, and it will be a day of celebration for the school community.

The memorial service will be held in the gymnasium of the school, and it will be a day of celebration for the school community. The memorial service will be held in the gymnasium of the school, and it will be a day of celebration for the school community. The memorial service will be held in the gymnasium of the school, and it will be a day of celebration for the school community.