

...ing about it, it would occur anymore. It was not a campaign of charges and counter-charges; it was a campaign of ideas and what each man would accomplish. There was no name-calling and no accusations. It was almost a state and gentlemanly race. Ben Achley won that campaign easily and remained in the Tennessee State Senate until his retirement in 2003.

...ing about it, it would occur anymore. It was not a campaign of charges and counter-charges; it was a campaign of ideas and what each man would accomplish. There was no name-calling and no accusations. It was almost a state and gentlemanly race. Ben Achley won that campaign easily and remained in the Tennessee State Senate until his retirement in 2003.

Although an extremely modest man, it was readily apparent just how shared Ben really was when one

...ing about it, it would occur anymore. It was not a campaign of charges and counter-charges; it was a campaign of ideas and what each man would accomplish. There was no name-calling and no accusations. It was almost a state and gentlemanly race. Ben Achley won that campaign easily and remained in the Tennessee State Senate until his retirement in 2003.

It is impossible to calculate the impact Ben and Sue had upon my own life, not is it possible to measure their warm friendship. The older I've become, the more I've realized the greatest gift life has to offer are those friendships that bring us love and comfort. I have loved Sue and Ben for a very long time and live so many others, will keep Ben Achley alive in my heart and memories for the rest of my own life.

Curtis Brantley Achley, Jr.

Attorneys for sheriff retirees seek $190,000 in fees

By Mike Stealy
stealy@timesfree.com

The original "settlement" proposed by the Vance County Retirement and Pension Board provided $15,000 to each of the six retiring deputies and one widow named in the county law department's suit. For the proposed settlement this money was to be used toward legal fees and not to cost