

The group's co-chairman, Knight (second white shirtman), while chairman of the House Education Committee was presented to him by the committee members. Knight was appointed to the committee in 2009 and earned the praise representing the 10th District.

By Mike Gandy
mikegandy@timesonline.com

House Knight, elected as state legislator, said he made his law, "honored" that the House Education Committee's efforts have been successful in the past year's work to make sure the state's education system is in the best possible position.

"I've been in the House for 10 years," he said, "and I've been in the House for 10 years."

He said he was proud to be a member of the House Education Committee, and he was proud to be a member of the House Education Committee, and he was proud to be a member of the House Education Committee.

He said he was proud to be a member of the House Education Committee, and he was proud to be a member of the House Education Committee, and he was proud to be a member of the House Education Committee.

He said he was proud to be a member of the House Education Committee, and he was proud to be a member of the House Education Committee, and he was proud to be a member of the House Education Committee.

He said he was proud to be a member of the House Education Committee, and he was proud to be a member of the House Education Committee, and he was proud to be a member of the House Education Committee.

housing project gets city funding

By Mike Gandy
mikegandy@timesonline.com

The City of Houston is the first group to receive $10 million in city funds for the first time in its history. The city's first housing project, a series of 100 units, is the first project to receive city funding.

The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding. The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding. The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding.

The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding. The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding. The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding.

The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding. The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding. The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding.

The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding. The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding. The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding.

The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding. The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding. The city's first housing project is the first project to receive city funding.